Subject: SVSD Annual Report on Music Education

Thank you for taking the time to review our first annual report on Music Education K-12 in the SVSD. The newly formed SVSD Music Coalition has worked closely with all of the music teachers in our district to provide the data for this report. We see this as a way of providing some basic information to establish the current state of music education.

Do we need a music coalition when music education seems to be thriving in our district? Yes, since we can't take that support for granted. There will always be tough budget decisions and with the focus on state testing requirements, music education is perceived to be a non-core requirement, making it vulnerable to reductions of time allotted, dollars allocated, or other essential resources needed to maintain the programs' high quality.

The coalition is open to community members, teachers, administrators, parents, and anyone who is passionate about equal access to music education for all kids. The current goal is to publicize our existence and educate our members on our principles and mission and the district budget/decision process. We'll know that we've established ourselves as a credible, well-informed, student focused organization when decision makers come to us to determine the impacts of their decisions before making any changes affecting music education.

There will be an opportunity at a September board meeting for our coalition to answer any questions, address concerns or hear comments from you regarding the content of the report or our coalition.

Sincerely,

Carol Reitz

Elementary Schools

Music Directors: Rachel Rice (FCES)/Haley Franzwa (FCES band), April Herb (CVES), Kristi George (SES), Dan Thompson (NBE)/Lorraine Thurston (NBE band), Carol Heitt (OES)

Each of the five elementary schools has a full-time music instructor. Students K-5 receives general music instruction throughout the year. All five elementary schools produce a Kindergarten musical – a five musical rotation that allows the 5th graders to see the musical they performed as 6 year olds.

Band instruction is extra-curricular at all five elementary schools. The North Bend Elementary band program had been required and a part of the 5th grade curriculum but has moved outside of the school day this year. The growing elementary band programs are showing up in the growing middle school band programs.

Fall City Elementary has a combined 4th/5th grade extra-curricular choir that meets once a week.

Middle Schools

Music Directors: Haley Franzwa (CKMS), Dean Snavely (SMS), Matt Wenman (TFMS)

Each middle school has a full-time music director responsible for both the 6-8th grade choirs and 6-8th grade band programs and extra-curricular jazz bands. The CKMS director teaches two choir classes and two band classes--6th and 7/8th grade combined and the FCE 5th grade band. At SMS and TFMS, music directors teach three choir classes (6,7,8), three band classes (6,7,8) and extra-curricular jazz band(s).

Since TFMS opened 3 years ago the music personnel have remained stable. Choir growth was 29% in 2009-10 and 27% in 2010-11. Band growth was 13% in 2009-10 and 17% in 2010-11. The SMS music director will be on an approved leave to attend grad school and the CKMS director will also be leaving for grad school at the end of this year.

Extra-curricular participation at the three middle schools has also shown healthy growth over the past three years. Jazz bands, audio/lighting tech classes and musicals are included in these numbers. This is the first year that TFMS produced a musical – Oliver, which accounts for the major increase in 2011.
