Serving All Music Educators

Guest speaker Tim Lautzenheiser

You are invited to come and hear this dynamic speaker who will educate and inspire you.

Tim Lautzenheiser is a well-known name in the music-education world as a teacher, clinician, author, composer, consultant, adjudicator and, above all, a trusted friend to anyone interested in working with young people in developing a desire for excellence.

His career involves 10 years of successful college band directing, during which he developed highly acclaimed groups in all areas of instrumental and vocal fields. He presently holds the Earl Dunn Distinguished Lecturer position at Ball State University. Tim is also Director of Education for Conn-Selmer, and he serves as the national spokesperson for the "Make A Difference with Music" program for the National Association for Music Education.

A graduate of Ball State University and the University of Alabama, Tim has received several prestigious awards, among them an Honorary Doctorate degree from VanderCook College of Music, the distinguished Sudler Order of Merit from the John Philip Sousa Foundation, Mr. Holland's Opus Award and the Music Industry Award from the Midwest Clinic Board of Directors.
